

MELINDA J. MOUNT

Melinda J. Mount is Executive Vice President and Co-Managing Director of AOL UK and is responsible for Strategy, Business Development, Interactive Marketing and Programming. Prior to her appointment in this newly created role, Mount was Vice President of Finance and Acquisitions at AOL Time Warner. In her previous position at AOL Time Warner, she was responsible for business planning, mergers and acquisitions, industry and competitive analysis and the development of long-term financial strategies. Most recently, Mount worked closely with the management of Time Inc., a wholly owned AOL Time Warner subsidiary, on its acquisition of IPC Group Limited, the UK's leading consumer magazine publisher. She led the development of the business plan and planning processes for the combined AOL Time Warner after the merger, and previously oversaw corporate strategy, business planning and capital allocation as Vice President of Corporate Strategy and Development at Time Warner Inc. Before joining Time Warner in 1995, Mount was Vice President in the Mergers and Acquisitions department at Morgan Stanley & Co. She received an MBA with distinction from the Harvard Graduate School of Business and a BBA with honours from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Mount is on the Dean's Advisory Board at the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Business and is also an advisor to the students in the school's Applied Corporate Finance programme.
