
Robyn Durie

Nationality: Australian/British

Date of Birth: 11 December 1952

Profession: Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales

Languages: English

Direct Telephone: (44-1707) 314499

Mobile: (44) (0)7940 514639

E-mail: robyn.durie@t-mobile.co.uk

Legal Experience:

Telecommunications, broadcasting, competition, data protection, internet and ecommerce and information technology.

Education:

1977 - 1978: London School of Economics and Political Science, LL.M

1975 - 1977: Sydney University, Australia, LL.B (Honours)

1971 - 1974: Sydney University, Australia, B.A.

Career to Date:

T-Mobile (UK)

September 2002 to date: Regulatory Counsel

Linklaters

Head of Communications Practice

1998 to February 2002: Member of the Management Group of Linklaters & Alliance Information, Technology and Communications Law Practice Group

1990 to February 2002: Partner, Linklaters

1987 - 1990: Assistant Solicitor, Linklaters

1988: Admitted as a Solicitor to the Supreme Court of England and Wales

1985 - 1987: Solicitor, Freehill Hollingdale & Page, Sydney

1982 - 1985: In-house lawyer, News Limited, working mainly for Network 10 Australia and Festival Records Pty Limited

1984 - 1985: Barrister, Blackstone Chambers, Sydney

1978 - 1984: Solicitor, Allen, Allen & Hemsley
1977 - 1978: Legal Officer, IFPI (International Federation of the Phonographic Industries),
London
1977: Solicitor, Allen, Allen & Hemsley, Sydney
1977: Admitted as a Solicitor in New South Wales. Also admitted in Victoria and Australian Capital Territory
1975 - 1977: Articles, Allen, Allen & Hemsley, Sydney

Publications:

Co-author of "Whale on Copyright" (3rd and 4th editions)
Privacy, Personality & Publicity International Designs
Editorial Board, "Computers and Telecommunications Law Journal", "Entertainment Law Review",
e-Journal "Computer Law & Security Report"
Contributor, "Outsourcing Practice Manual"
Catterns and Durie "Broadcasting Law and Practice"

Education

BA – Sydney University 1974
Diploma – Dramatic Art – NIDA 1974
LLB (Hons) – Sydney University 1977
LLM – London School of Economics 1978